

Why Take This Fabulous Cruise in July 2008?

- Carnival has a wonderful matching funds program that will generate a large amount of money for the Church. For example: If all 75 reserved cabins are sold, the Church will earn $15,000. Needless to say, more cabins filled, more money earned.
- By taking an Alaskan cruise in July, you are getting a break from the summer heat.
- You get to travel with your own personal Spiritual Advisor, Fr. Christopher.
- Smooth sailing.
- Extended to all family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers not just St. Andrew Church.
- Hands on learning experience. Meet people from different cultures. Experience new geographical areas. See wildlife in their natural setting and watch the playful whales as they swim by the ship.
- A great opportunity to add on your family reunion with the group and make money for the Church.
- An excellent chance for old friends to get together and the possibility of new friendships.
- The ships are completely handicapped compliant. They are able to accommodate your special diet. Ex. Diabetic, low cholesterol and Atkins. If you have any special needs, please advise me at the time of booking.
- Pregnant women 27 weeks or more and infants under 4 months old will not be allowed to board the ship.
